

Behavioral Tech, LLC Trainer Biosketch

Robin April (Sato) McCann Ph.D.

Dr. Marsha Linehan intensively trained Dr. McCann in 1994. In 1995 Dr. McCann implemented DBT in a forensic hospital; this program continues as the prototype for DBT forensic inpatient treatment in the United States. In 2000 the JCHO recognized this program as a model of staff training. After joining Behavioral Tech. in 1996, Dr. McCann provided DBT training in Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Texas, Montana, Australia, Canada, and the United Kingdom. She has written several chapters and an article on DBT implementation in forensic settings.

Currently Dr. McCann is the Director of Psychology at the Colorado Mental Health Institute at Pueblo. Dr. McCann received the "employee of the year" award in 2000.
